HOMESTEAD POLICE LOOKING FOR AN ALLEGED MURDERER

ROBBERS GET GEMS VALUED AT $20,000

"Vampire" Bandit And Her Two Male Companions Relieve New Yorker of the Amount Named, According to His Story

ADVANCED BY A FLAPPER

Woman, a Pretty Blonde, Marches the Visitor in Philadelphia to An Alleyway; Joined By Two Male Bandits, And Relieved of Valuables

Philadelphia, Jan. 24.—(United Press)—Detectives today are investigating the report made by Abe Caplan, 126 Hester street, New York, that 15 minutes after he arrived in this city he was robbed of $20,000 in jewelry by a "vampire" bandit and her two male companions.

Caplan, according to the police, said he had never done any business in Philadelphia, but because he had heard Director of Public Safety Butler had made it safe here for jewelry salesmen he decided to invade this territory.

Just after he alighted from a train and was walking up Market street, a pretty blond flapper, with an alluring voice, approached him timidly and asked the way to the nearest postoffice.

When Caplan told the lady he was a stranger in town her voice suddenly changed and she threw back her coat, revealing a revolver.

"I'll show you how we treat strangers here," the vampire bandit said, ordering the salesman to walk down 17th street.

"I was badly frightened and did as she directed," Caplan told detectives.

The woman forced Caplan into an alleyway where she was joined by two male bandits. The robbers then relieved the jewelry salesman of his brief case containing gems valued at $20,000, a $65 watch and his pocketbook.

Speers Authorities Are Bound To Break Up The Practice Of Speeding

Seventeen alleged speeders were presumed to appear before Burgess John Hatfield of Speers last night, but of the number only six were on hand at the appointed time. The accused were fined each $12.25 for violation of the speed laws.

The license number of 16 others have been taken and their names will be secured through the State Highway department at Harrisburg.

The majority of those fined by Burgess Hatfield last night have their places of residence in Charleroi, Bentleyville and Belle Vernon.

Markers regulating the speed limit at 15 miles an hour, have been placed on the river road one-eight of a mile apart through Speers, and immediate locality, and Officer Peter Welch, equipped with a stop watch, is on the "job," so it behooves automobile and motorcycle motorists to also be on the "job" while traversing this particular section, as the Speers authorities are determined to tend in twain the speeding proclivities now prevalent and have been in vogue.

ACTRESS GETS A $72,489 VERDICT

New York, Jan. 24.—(United Press)—"It was a joke on me," Herbert Lyman Smith, owner of coal and oil lands in West Virginia, told Justice William Harman Black in explaining his business relations with Madeline Travers, motion picture actress.

Miss Travers obtained a verdict of $72,489 in her suit against the coal man, whom, she said, agreed to back her in promotion the Travers Film enterprise.

The actress sued for $225,500, alleging non-fulfillment of a verbal contract. She said Smith was to pay her $3,500 a week and $1,000 a week for expenses.

Smith admitted Miss Travers used his limousine "almost daily" and dined with him frequently.

Shoots Self By Accident While Cleaning A Gun

James Fife Baird, aged 28 years, accidentally shot himself while cleaning a 38-calibre revolver, of the Army type, at his home near Thompson's Falls, Monday afternoon.

The young man was alone in his room. He went there shortly after the dinner hour. Hearing the report of the shot, the family rushed to the scene, and found him lying on the floor with a bullet wound through his head. His hands were covered with oil and oily rags; these were found lying beside him. He died in an hour after the accident, and did not regain consciousness.

Mr. Baird was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baird. He was born in Peters township, and had lived there during the interim of his life. He was a member of the Center Presbyterian church. There survive his parents, two sisters, and a brother. Funeral services will be held at the home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BUTLER MAPS OUT PLANS FOR A THIRD CLEAN-UP

Philadelphia, Jan. 24.—(United Press)—"Old Gimlet Eye" Butler today mapped out plans a la Marine Corps style, for a third 48-hour clean-up drive against crime, vice and vicious characters, to start at noon tomorrow.

The director of public safety declared that his third offensive against lawbreakers would be launched Friday after he made a personal investigation of reports that vice resorts and gambling dens were operating in the day instead of at night.

Attired in civilian clothes and unescorted, Butler traversed about the city and his "Gimlet Eye" discovered that operators of illegal joints are still doing business at the old stands.

"They merely switched their hours, therefore I'll switch mine and so will the rest of the police force," Butler who now commands 5,000 bluecoats, said.

"These lawbreakers are not fooling us. It takes time to get onto their curves, but we are beginning to fathom most of them already."

"In this third drive we are not only going to clean up the city morally, but physically as well. We are going to clean up the dirty streets."

Warning Given Against The Speed Trappers

"Beware of the speed trap." This warning was issued by C. H. Roth, secretary of the Pittsburgh Motor club, to the 3,000 members of the organization and to the public throughout the Pittsburgh district.

The proclamation embodied a denunciation of the tactics of squires and constables who exceed the limits of justice and their requirements of law in lurking in wait to arrest automobile drivers, not to preserve order and safety on the highways, but to grab money for themselves.

"This association," Mr. Roth said, "gives the complete stamp of its approval to those men who, with a high sense of duty and loyalty to the laws of the state, work hand in hand with the automobile driver and protect him from reckless, drunken and dangerous drivers by arresting those who should be arrested."

"We, however, bitterly oppose certain practices on the part of law officers who have subverted the ends of justice to their own selfish purposes on certain roads in the Pittsburgh district."

Lehigh University Too Classical For Hazing Is To Be Inferred

Bethlehem, Pa., Jan. 24.—(United Press)—There will be no more hazing at Lehigh university, if the recent edict of Dean McCann is observed. The dean in announcing the new rule adopted by the faculty declared that hazing existed nowadays only in "second rate institutions," and while admitting that freshmen often needed "taking down" said that hazing did not meet this need.

Hazing, he said, constituted a "three-year course in brutality, coarseness and cowardly bullying" and that any one continuing the practice would have to get out of Lehigh at once.

Hazing is defined as including "dumping, paddling, soap feeding and all other forms of physical violence and personal indignity."

VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR PASSES

John Christian Sode, aged 87 years, who saw service in the Civil War, died yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James H. Abbott, in New Eagle. Funeral services will be held this evening at the home of his daughter, with burial tomorrow in the Southside cemetery, Pittsburgh.

Mr. Sode was born in Germany, and when six years of age his parents came to the United States and located on the Southside in the city of Pittsburgh, where he sought employment in the glass factories of that district, later going to Monongahela, where he worked at his trade. He was a skilled workman and was employed in the first factories in Pittsburgh. In 1861 he was united in marriage to Miss Barbara Treitz, of Pittsburgh, who died about 12 years ago. Since that time he relinquished his trade as a glassmaker, due to advancing age and removed to New Eagle, where he resided in New Eagle. A portion of his time was also spent with other members of his family.

When the Civil War broke out Christian Sode enlisted in Company D, Third Pennsylvania Heavy Artillery, and served with distinction throughout the conflict. He was a member of Starkwater Post No. 60, Grand Army of the Republic and also a member of the Grace Lutheran church of the South Side, Pittsburgh, with which he had been affiliated for many years. Although far past his allotted number of years, his faculties were clear and unimpaired and he was a familiar figure on the streets of Monongahela, until stricken about one month ago. He is survived by six daughters, Mrs. A. H. Hunter, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Harry L. Rider of Oil City; Mrs. James H. Abbott, of New Eagle; Mrs. Arthur E. Beldan, of Parnassus; Mrs. Arthur Davis of Hagerstown, Md.; Mrs. Fred Speer of Pittsburgh, and two sons, John Christian Sode, a veteran of the World War, and now a patient in the government hospital, Baltimore, Md., undergoing treatment as a victim of gas, and A. Borders the Woods.

The closed gentian prefers moist soil and its clusters of violet-blue "bells" may occasionally be found growing abundantly along the borders of rich, moist woods or on the banks of streams, says Nature Magazine. The large, opposite leaves with clasping bases are rather distinctive. Unlike its fringed namesake, the closed gentiana is a perennial.

Captive Animals Fretful.

Some wild animals are so fretful in captivity that their lives are shortened materially. This is true of foxes and monkeys. Elephants and snakes do not seem to suffer much from captivity, but are strongly inclined to long for life in any environment. The mortality among animals in zoological parks is very high.

Too Late.

Now comes one Egyptologist with the declaration that Cleopatra was neither a beauty nor a vamp, that she really thought she was married to Caesar, and that she was the mother of twins. It's too late to put this stuff before us, belonging as we do to the "I am dying, Egypt, dying" era of civilization.

WARNING AGAINST SPEED TRAPPERS

There is a type of constable, village policeman and petty-minded justice of the peace who, working in team formation, accomplish much the same results as highwaymen who pillage the pockets of automobile drivers at the point of a revolver.

"We have under investigation certain roadside courts which are menaces to the pocketbooks of the motorists. So-called constables, after arresting motorists for no valid reason, tell them the fine is so much and the costs so much. They collect the money on the spot and let the motorists go."

"Such impromptu dispensation of justice is contrary to the law, of which these fellows make a travesty. It places the motorists, guilty or not, at the mercy of policemen who are for dollars only. Enforcing reasonable law is one matter, turning highwaymen into another."

"If action is not taken on the part of higher authorities, it will become dangerous for the most law-abiding motorist to venture outside of Pittsburgh after dark, along roads that are not heavily traveled. Such conditions must not be tolerated."

Mr. Roth cited reports which had come to him of one motorcycle constable in a township adjacent to the Pittsburgh city limits who boasted of earning on an average of $30 a day from the fines resulting from the arrests which he made along a very short stretch of roadway.

Mr. Roth asserted that some county justices obtain men of uncertain character as their constables, who readily acquiesce in schemes to trap motorists.

Mr. Roth emphasizes the fact that the club which he represents has a high regard for those men who are arresting those who actually seem guilty of violating highway regulations, and that this message is only aimed at the minority of constables and squires. All complaints of abusive treatment or undesired arrests at the hands of those who earn their living from such pitfalls will be welcome at the offices of the Pittsburgh Motor Club in the William Penn Hotel, he said.

BURNS HEALED WITHOUT LEAVING A SCAR

My sister was burned last winter when putting coal oil on a deadened fire and the flames burst out into her face. We used nothing but San-Cura and didn't even have a physician and in an almost incredible short time her face was perfectly healed without a scar. It is the finest thing for burns that I have ever seen. Have also used it for other things. Just lately an infected toe and immediately it was healed.—Hattie S. Pitts, 18 Iowa Circle, Washington, D. By LAURA MILLER

"IT HAIN'T NEVER BEEN DONE"

She started off on the wrong foot, seemingly. One of the worst girls in high school, at seventeen hilariously promising to bring home a nice, handsome cowboy, she became a teacher who "rode with the ranchers, gossiped with the women, danced with the cow-punchers, and didn't go to church but once while in Wyoming." Can't you imagine all the old grannies—male and female—shaking their heads?

Actually, Olga Edith Gunkle was blessed with superb natural health and energy. The schoolgirl "saved herself from disgrace" by cramming four years' work into three, and loving grubby children of a nautical class. Came college, university and settlement work. But let Olga Edith be her own vigorous self. She discovered that:

"In New York or Wyoming people needed something besides food and raiment and leisure time; they needed something that would make their lives glad and joyous and daring and that:

noble. In other words, they needed "that something" by many called "religion." So I came to Zanesville, Ohio, as a director of religious education (much against my friends' advice, who insisted that I stay in New York) and here I was licensed to preach. My reasons for coming to a small place were these:

"I believe that many people work in a large city, not because they love their job and because of the job's sake, but because they love New York and would work at anything for the sake of staying in it. I don't believe it is 'How big is the town' your job is in? that matters so much as 'How big have you made your job in the town you are in?' that really counts."

"The second reason for working in a small town, (especially if one's work is rather new) is that Old Tradition hasn't been placed upon a throne and taught to wave a 'little stick' to the tune of, 'It hasn't never been done like that before.' Because I was the first director of religious education in Zanesville there were no traditions as to how I should look, act or do my work. So I was able to do things very much more easily and with less friction than if I had been compelled to vanquish old Brother Tradition.

"Thirdly, to say in the parlance of the ministerial profession, a young person becomes poised, and well balanced more quickly in a small place than in a large because of her larger opportunities for notice and advancement for efficient, effective work."

The Cost of a Car

is no measure of its value

These are the things to consider

THE cost of a car depends in large part on volume and efficiency. It is no criterion of value.

Studebaker builds 150,000 fine cars yearly. All of them are Sixes. The main costs are divided by that enormous output. Thus at prices of $975 and up we offer the utmost in quality. We offer maximum values.

Don't judge these cars by prices. Under other conditions they might cost twice as much, yet offer less than these.

Some major costs

Quality cars require costly facilities. Studebaker has $50,000,000 invested in modern plants and equipment. $8,000,000 in drop forge plants alone. $10,000,000 in body plants, to carry out the Studebaker standards.

There are 12,500 up-to-date machines employed to build these cars. Some are enormously expensive.

Few outputs justify such facilities. Then parts must be bought outside, and profits paid to others.

Studebaker engineering costs $500,000 per year. That to us is $3.33 per car.

Our Department of Research and Experiment employs 125 skilled men. It makes 500,000 tests per year to maintain our standards.

Our Bureau of Methods and Standards fixes the requirements for every part and detail. 12,000 inspections are necessary for each car to insure against flaws and mistakes. We employ 1,000 men to make them.

Cars like the Studebakers cannot be built without such facilities, such research, such care. Yet enormous output alone makes them possible at Studebaker prices.

The best we know

Studebakers represent the best we know. And with our army of engineers, with our wealth of experience, we probably know what is best.

We use 35 formulas for steels. Each is best suited to certain parts, as proved by years of tests.

On some steels we pay the makers a bonus of 15% to get them exactly right. There is no room to excel us there.

We machine the entire surface of each crank shaft, as was done on Liberty Airplane Motors. That extra cost is heavy. But thus we get ations, including 15 coats of paint and varnish.

Open cars have real leather cushions. They cost, over imitation leather, about $25 per car.

No closed cars could be more luxurious. That lining of Chase Mohair is made from the soft fleece of Angora goats. A velour lining would save about two-thirds that cost—up to $100 per car.

Note how every detail denotes infinite care: That, as you know, is expensive.

Note the completeness of our larger models. The nickel-plated bumpers, extra disc wheels with cord tires, a steel trunk, a courtesy light. These are rare extras, even on the costliest cars.

Nothing is stinted

Compare part by part with any rival cars. Studebaker will show you some scores of advantages.

Then consider Studebaker history. For 72 years this name has stood for quality. When people rode in carriages, Studebaker built the best. Now those same traditions are applied to motor cars alone.

Consider Studebaker records. Mark how these cars in service have multiplied demand, until people last year paid $200,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

Consider their service records. One Studebaker car, built in 1918, has run 475,000 miles. It is still in active service. It lately made a mid-winter trip from Los Angeles to New York. That means 80 years of average service, of 6,000 miles per year. What more can you dream of in a motor car than the Studebakers offer?

Just Go and See

Studebaker is today the leader in the fine-car field.

Studebaker builds more quality cars than any other concern in the world.

Buyers of fine cars last year spent over $200,000,000 for Studebaker models.

The demand for Studebakers has almost trebled in three years—as people found them out.

Then go see them. Compare them with any car you will. Don't spend $1,000 or over without knowing what Studebaker offers. You owe that to yourself.

that perfect balance, that absence of vibration.

We use more Timken bearings than any other car which costs under $5,600. They cost considerably more than ball bearings.

These facts apply to all Studebakers, of all styles and sizes. The materials used in all chassis are alike.

Beauty—Luxury—Finish

The Studebaker coach work has been famous for decades. No one can excel it.

The finish is produced by 26 oper-

Receiver on Phonograph Aids in Selecting Records

For demonstrating phonograph records, a talking machine has been invented with a receiver that prevents sounds reaching other than the listener's ear. Thus, it does away with the need of individual booths and aids in saving floor space in a store. It has the appearance of an ordinary instrument and can be attached to a counter or table.

Snowfall of Today as Heavy as in Grandpa's Time

Official records, according to the weather bureau, will not support the assertions that "we don't have such heavy snowfalls now as we did when I was a child." According to the figures, the winters now are just as severe as they were in the days of our grandfathers. It is a fact, say the experts, that the deep snow remembered by the man who was a boy in the 70's or 80's which reached his shoulders would be less than knee deep compared with his present stature. For example, the statistics show that in New York City and Albany, N. Y., the heaviest snowfalls occurred more than 30 years ago, but there have been few winters with more snow and as much snow in the season of 1918-19. Records at Springfield, Ill., show that the heaviest snowfall since 1884 indicates that the greatest snowfall was in 1913-14. In New York City, the heaviest occurred in 1904-05, when it reached the tops of the houses. The last great snowfall in the city was in 1918-19, when it reached the tops of the houses. The last great snowfall in the city was in 1918-19, when it reached the tops of the houses.

1873-74, but two years later there was only 5.3 inches, while Portland, Me., experienced 125.5 inches, in 1880-87; last winter's total was only 4 1/2 inch less.

Nebraska Once Home of Ape
Unearthed Tooth Shows

Scientists unearthing fossils in Nebraska have found a tooth, which they say belonged to a prehistoric ape and shows that such an animal once lived in that region. The skull of a giant camel was also dug up, together with bones of piglike beasts as large as a rhinoceros. Remains of a three-toed horse are among the collection, which according to the discoverers, proves that this animal roamed America more than 2,000,000 years ago.

Gas Mask and Rubber Gloves to Protect Painters

To safeguard painters against lead poisoning, frequently contracted while working with materials containing that mineral, a respirator and rubber gloves have been devised. Without discomfort or inconvenience when worn, these articles prevent the workmen from getting the liquid on their hands, which may result in irritating skin diseases, or breathing the fumes, and to be injurious to the lungs. Strapped over the head, the mask does not obstruct the workman's sight.

Stretching Wire Fencing

A simple and efficient wire-fence stretcher is shown in the drawing. It consists of two lengths of 2 by 6-in. wood with two or three bolts passing through them so that they can be securely clamped to the end of the fencing as shown. A heavy rope is passed around both pieces around a fence post and tied. A stout stick is used to twist the rope, thus pulling the fence as tight as desired. The device can be made in a short time from material that can be found on every farm.

Draft Shield for Carburetor

On many automobiles the carburetor is situated rather low on the side of the motor, right in the path of the air draft, which, during cold weather, cools the carburetor and prevents it from working properly. This trouble can be eliminated by the use of a draft shield, which is large enough to close the space between the engine and the hood, and extending at least to the top of the motor. It is fastened under a manifold clamp, and its edges are rolled or bent over to prevent cutting the hands. Galvanized iron or brass is the best material to use for the shield.

That New York City and its suburbs will have a population of 20,000,000 in A. D. 2000 is a prediction of an official city plan committee.

In Society's Realm

The Pollyanna class of Christ Lutheran church will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Brown of Lincoln avenue, in their regular monthly meeting. A good attendance is requested.

A very delightful birthday surprise party was accorded Albert Schmieler, 12 year-old son of Mrs. Gertrude Schmieler last evening at his home in 329 Fallowfield avenue, when 25 of his friends gathered at his home and spent a merry evening. A happy time was spent in games and music and in conclusion dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Wilbur Rensel, sister of the honored guest. Appointments were carried out in accordance with the Valentine season. Albert was presented with many gifts.

EDWARD ORNDORFF, SON OF MR. and Mrs. S. B. Orndorff of 109 Lookout avenue, was the honor guest at a birthday party last evening held at his home complimentary to his 17th birthday anniversary. There were 30 friends and neighbors present, the majority of whom were members of the Junior class of High school, in which Eldred is a member. A very happy evening was spent in dancing, singing and games followed by the serving of a dainty luncheon by Mrs. Orndorff assisted by Mrs. S. A. Michener. Eldred was the recipient of many appropriate gifts.

The sales force and a number of friends of the store of J. W. Berryman & Son were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Matilda Hopkins of Meadow avenue Tuesday evening with approximately 30 in attendance. A most enjoyable evening was spent in sewing, social converse, games and music and Miss Lois Tunstall favored with several vocal solos, which were highly pleasing. Miss Helen Flenkel accompanied her on the piano. The evening was brought to a happy conclusion by the serving of refreshments by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Edith Hopkins.

The marriage of Miss Anna Cecilia Rialti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Rialti of Shady avenue, and William Smyth, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smyth of Monessen, took place this morning at 8 o'clock in the Mother of Sorrows church, with Rev. Father C. G. Diana officiating. The bride was prettily gowned in gray canton crepe with hat to match. Miss Edith Piccinotti, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of blue canton crepe with steel bead trimming and hat to match. Carl Pasquali of Monessen acted as best man. Breakfast was served at Johnson's restaurant, Monessen, following the ceremony, covers being laid for the bride and groom and the attendants. The bride is wellknown here, while the groom is one of Monessen's most estimable young men. After a short eastern trip, Mr. and Mrs. Smyth will be at home in Schoonmaker avenue, Monessen.

BAUM ATTORNEY TO OFFICIALS

The county salary board has practically completed its work of fixing the salaries of county employees for the ensuing year. The salary of Isaac W. Baum, elected attorney for those officials for whom the law does not have a solicitor, was fixed at $1,500 per year. This item will be charged to the offices affected as follows: County treasurer, $400; register of wills, $300; prothonotary, $300; recorder, $200; clerk of courts, $200; and coroner, $100.

The board also fixed the salaries of clerks in the county commissioners' office as follows: Voucher clerk, $150 per month, and three other clerks, $125 a month each.

The recent election by the county commissioners of a superintendent of buildings, assistant superintendent, engineer, assistant engineer and night watchman will remain in force, it having been determined that these appointments properly belong to the county commissioners. The salaries will remain as fixed by the salary board at the time of their election.

Chinese Mintage.

Minting coin seems to be a business enterprise in China which does not observe the business ethics of western countries. A Chinese mint appears to be run for profit by the persons who happen to have charge of it. So it has come about that one Chinese mint has actually counterfeited the coinage of another.—The Nation's Business.

Turtle Not Worried.

The lady who was not too heavily endowed with either cerebral matter or speculative fancy was visiting the zoo. The keeper, with considerable awe in his tones, informed her that the turtle there was 311 years old. "I suppose that's actually old," responded the inquisitive one. "But what did the keeper say?"

WHERE ARE MAIDS TO EARN A LIVING

Harrisburg, Jan. 24—(United Press)—Where are the maids of all work around the home going to earn a living these days?

This is a question the State Employment Bureau asks to account for the limited number of applicants for domestic service noticeable generally throughout the state.

At the present time there appears to be no "servant class" in Pennsylvania.

In the old days, there were girls from foreign shores, or colored girls glad enough to get a job as a maid in the home.

Today the few "willing workers" who apply are taken up without much advertising on the part of the bureau.

The only answer seems to be: There is either more money in other lines where this class can be employed or there are not enough coming over to this country from the other side due to immigration restrictions.

SAILORS' MONUMENT CRITICIZED

Proposed Navy memorial, designed by Ernesto Begni del Piante, which is to be erected in Washington and which is being severely criticized by Augustus Lukeman, member of the National Sculptors Society. He complains that sea gulls are scavengers of the sea and should not be used to symbolize the Navy. The design has been approved by the Navy and Marine Memorial Committee.

THE GRAND FIVE MAKE IT FIVE

The Charleroi Grand Five defeated the strong K. S. club of Monessen last night by a score of 23-16. The K. S. club has attained great laurels in the past season, coming to Charleroi with a clean slate. This game made the fifth straight for the Grand Five, all other teams in the valley bowing to the local team. The Grand Five can now lay claim to the championship of the Monongahela valley.

The contest last night was a very close-guarded game, but the locals pulled out in the last quarter, as usual. The score at the end of the third quarter was 14 to 13, in favor of the Grand Five. Kornhi was the shining light for the locals, while John Janosik was Monessen's best.

The Grand Five would like to back games with all light weight teams in the valley, especially with Brownsville, Smithton, West Newton, Donora and Monongahela. For games write to Roy Barrass, care of 606 Fallowfield Avenue, Charleroi, or call Charleroi 445. The summary:

Grand Five—26	Monessen—16
Rickard.....F.....	Janosik.....
Dillon.....F.....	J. Janosik.....
Schultz.....C.....	Ninckel.....
Kornhi.....G.....	Tomaskovic.....
Smith.....G.....	Stofan.....

Field goals: Kornhi, 4; Rickard 2; Dillon 1; Janosik 2. Fouls: Rickard 7; Kornhi 3; Schultz 1; Janosik 12; Stofan 2.

DRY HEAD'S CASE TO JURY ON TOMORROW

New York, January 24—(United Press)—With completion of defense testimony expected during today, the case of William H. Anderson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, on trial for third degree forgery in connection with his administration of League funds, may go to the jury tomorrow.

In denying actions of defense counsel, former Gov. Charles S. Whitman, for court direction of a verdict of not guilty and also for dismissal of the indictment, Justice Tompkins said there were three primary questions of fact which must be submitted to the jury.

- 1.—That alterations actually were made or directed by the defendant in the books of account and in the reports to the state and federal government for income tax purposes?
- 2.—What was the effect of those alterations or transfers and did they tend to make possible fraud?
- 3.—What was the intent of the defendant in making or directing those charges, if it be found that he did make or direct them?

As District Attorney Pecora closed the state's case yesterday afternoon the defense was scheduled to open today.

URNS ATTENTION FOREIGN AFFAIRS

London, Jan. 24—(United Press).—His labor government practically completed. Premier Ramsey MacDonald turned his attention to foreign affairs today.

One of a number of pressing foreign office matters demanding his attention, was to receive the resignation of Lord Robert Cecil, as British representative on the League of Nations council.

Cecil will be succeeded by Lord Parnham, president of the council in MacDonald's cabinet, and it is understood he and the prime minister will press vigorously for early inclusion of both Russia and Germany in the League of Nations.

Others problems accumulating for MacDonald's attention are recognition of Russia, ratification of the Lausanne treaty and the Tangier convention, negotiation regarding the Mosul oil fields and the Egyptian dispute.

HEALTH ADVICE

Physicians Advise Patients of Effective First-Aid Home Treatment To Master Colds and Guard Against Serious Winter Ills.

Many physicians now advise patients to have on hand a supply of Bulgarian Herb Tea for emergency purposes.

Harsh, drastic or habit-forming drugs should be avoided—the risk is too great, because certain drugs have a tendency to depress the heart and disturb the nervous system.

Millions of people are today using Bulgarian Herb Tea as a reliable first-aid to help break up colds, and to keep the intestines and bowels free of the waste poisons that so often cause ill health. Its gentle laxative qualities and stimulating effect tends to increase the circulation and heat up the chilled blood.

See your druggist at once about Bulgarian Herb Tea for emergency purposes. You or some other member of your family may need it to help fight a cold this winter.
